

LHM-SA Weekly Highlights

2nd November 2009

On Sunday 1st November LHM-SA attended two church services in Pretoria. In the Afrikaans service the Afrikaans catechism was officially launched (see picture). We as LHM received 14 copies for free to sell. In the German church service a song practise was held together with the seminary congregation as preparation for the outreach service (see highlight of 23rd November), which will be held on the 22nd November in the Art Museum Park. We as LHM will be part of the outreach and will display our material. Printed and sponsored by the Lutheran Heritage Foundation.

On the 7th we held our second successful ETS Volunteers Meeting. The purpose of this meeting is to keep in touch with the volunteers, motivate and guide them.

A surprise visit to our office was from our ETS Volunteer from Mozambique, Andre Moiane and his wife who visited our office on Thursday, 5th November.

News from Royce, our ETS volunteer in Zimbabwe, had to give up his telephone line due to finances, but we can call him at the Munyathi School. We received a parcel from him through another school teacher who visited her family in South Africa, and received BCC answer sheets and invoices. Apart from continued hardship regarding the economy, like unaffordable high food prices, they are well and the ministry is growing.

A drama talent competition took place on the 21st at Rabie Ridge for the youth and young Adults. Matthew 25:14-26 "The Parable of the Talents" was the message of this concert, where youth showcased their talents with love and enthusiasm. Everybody who took part whether in singing, dancing and drama did it without fear. All used their gifts without hesitation. The talents came from young and old. Lucas closed with a drama performance on Mark 10: 46-52 of the blind man,

On Sunday we as LHM were invited by the Arcadia congregation in Pretoria to participate in an open air church service in the art museum park. It was such a blessing and we were able to greatly impact on reaching out to the visitors by having our table there with th LHM reading and digital material.

On Wednesday, LHM-SA drove to Pretoria and recorded the Arcadia Youth's concert. The editing of the concert was finished in time and the youth group received 50 copies of the concert (many more orders may follow). We used this opportunity to insert our promotional LHM-SA video clip at the end of the video. The idea is that in this way LHM-SA will be
