

LHM-SA Weekly Highlights

12th November

All Directors were able to attend the third LHM-SA Board meeting. After receiving feedback on the newest developments within LHM International from Christel Scharlach regarding the Director's Workshop in Ethiopia, the Board discussed different options for LHM-SA to become less dependent on financial support from our head office in St Louis, USA.

Touwsrivier ETS Participants

The Lutheran Youth in Touwsrivier is very active and they not only attended a seminar on Drug and Alcohol Addiction by Desmond, they also had the band accompany the singing!

Desmond Kaas presented the ETS workshop in the Touwsrivier Parish on the 17th November and two of the 15 participants want to be ETS Volunteers. Well done, Desmond!

Touwsrivier Lutheran Youth Band

26th November 2007

LHM-SA has applied to become a dealer for Concordia Publishing House (CPH). CPH is based in St Louis and sells Lutheran resources ranging from printed material like books, teaching resources, greeting cards, to display racks. Please have a look at the CPH website, www.cph.org and place an order with Christel at LHM-SA (011- 791 1661).

3rd December 2007

Lucas was invited, all expenses paid, by the St Thomas Lutheran congregation in Phoenix, Durban, for a drama performance at their Advent Celebration on the 1st December. The Advent Celebration was attended by more than 100 people. The local band accompanied the singing and the Sunday School children, the youth and also the Drama Group of St Thomas performed their songs, dances and skits. Lucas performed a drama based on the death and resurrection of Lazarus (John 11:1-43), titled "Be ready, Jesus is coming!" He also performed the all-time favourite, "The Prodigal Son". Lawrenz Naidoo, Sharon Chetty and Pastor Rainald Meyer, on behalf of the congregation, presented him with a special gift that is much appreciated.
