Drama Ministry – Randfontein Primary School.

Lucas shared the story of David and Goliath, called “Tigers don’t Cry” with the Gr. 1 to Gr. 4 pupils in a dramatized format. The teachers were very appreciative and Lucas was assured that he will be invited back to perform a drama for the higher grades. Pastor Mogoshane from Kagiso accompanied Lucas to the school, we very are thankful for his involvement.

The ETS Workshop in Gaborone on the 20th September with 20 participants was also attended by two ETS volunteers, Matsidiso and Gaseteko. They encouraged the others by sharing from their experience. During the practical outreach they invited people from the area to the church service and to Bible studies on Wednesday evening. So far a mother with her two children has responded to this outreach. Pastor Seifert conveyed his appreciation to Egon Gevers for the unassuming way in which he shared about his own work as an ETS Volunteer. It has certainly encouraged the participants. Dineo Kerekang, one of the participants, offered to co-ordinate the ETS work in Botswana and to courier answer sheets and ETS reports to us once a month.

Lucas also performed the drama “Emmanuel” in the Sunday church service after the ETS workshop and all congregants appreciated the performance very much.

These devotions are mainly in English, but also in isiZulu, Setswana and in Sotho and are part of the “Tshepo” programme to reach out to inmates in prison. Lucas Baloyi and Christel Scharlach (with sound engineer in the picture on the right) have been invited by Radio Pulpit to attend the Presenter’s Workshop on Friday, 17th October.
