

LHM-SA Weekly Highlights

3rd March 2008

Dr Esayas

Dr Esayas travelled to South Africa for an official visit and attended several meetings, including a meeting with the LHM-SA Board. During his stay he became a victim of a “smash and grab” and they took his camera! We are thankful that he didn’t sustain injuries beyond glass cuts on his hand and a sprained finger.

The ETS workshop in Kagiso on the 8th for ELCSA Western Circuit was attended by 44 people from 9 different parishes, including Dean Lesejane, Pastors, Elders and other leaders. Desmond, Lucas and Christel presented the 7 Modules and the group also went out to do the Practical Outreach that has become a hallmark of the ETS workshop. Many people were invited to the church service the next day.

Pictures on the right: 1. It is a WORKshop, 2. But then there is the role PLAY, 3. It is time for the PRACTICAL outreach, 4. And then is the time to REJOICE.

17th March 2008

The “Go Teach” Sunday School Teachers and Children’s Ministry Conference at the Bryanston Methodist church on Saturday was attended by more than 800 people from all nine provinces with 21 speakers including Lucas Baloyi, LHM-SA Drama Co-ordinator. There were different topics “Understanding Team Dynamics, Ballonology, Face painting, Leading Kids in Worship, Cross cultural Ministry, Running children’s holiday clubs, Reaching and Keeping Kids, Puppetry, Experiential Learning, Teaching Tiny Tots and many more. Lucas was requested to present two topics: Story telling for Kids and Drama Ministry. Tony Jones from Atlanta, USA, who teaches “Clowning and Make-up” called Lucas after his performance at the Auditorium Finale and said, “With this tool you will go far”. He wants to see Lucas touring the United States in future.
