Pastor Mashiane writes the following about the ETS workshop in Sebokeng: -
 "Presentation was very professional and well prepared. The contents of your material were relevant and informative. The presentation was to the level of the congregation. The lesson had ingenuity for practical implementation conducive to laymen. Presenters were skilled and had the knowledge of the subject. They are real ambassadors of the Lutheran Hour ministry. We are proud of you. After your workshop interviewed candidates who attended the workshop and all were emphasizing the view that the reason our church is evangelical is evident in your lesson plan. The material was inspiring to all and will help for reference. This area is graded as excellent. I am delighted to report that prior to your workshop we had crusades and emanating from them a new and tender congregation called Lesedi was established at Vanderbijl Park. We are also in the process of recommending a call for an ETS workshop in this area, since the Synod has moved for processes of mission to establish the fifth Circuit of the Central Diocese."

As Lucas is reaching out to the Youth of Mohlakeng with Pastor Nkambule and doing Drama Ministry with them, he was pleasantly surprised to have met with Pastor Timothy Scharr from Nashville, USA. Pastor Scharr witnessed Lucas's drama performance of the "Lost Son" and was very touched and was so impressed that he even changed his prepared sermon on Romans 8:1-11 to Luke 15:11-31. He gave Lucas his blessings and said that soon he will invite him to his Diocese in Nashville in the United States.
